1. About UOP

The University of Petra (UOP) is a private university that was established in 1991. UOP is registered at the Ministry of Higher Education & Scientific Research (MOHE) and accredited by the Higher Education Accreditation Commission (HEAC) in Jordan. The University is also a member of the Association of Arab Universities.

UOP is located in the western part of the Jordanian capital, Amman. It is one of the most welcoming universities in Jordan. It is a home to seven faculties in a compact and friendly campus, where students really enjoy the opportunity to achieve their goals while developing a desire for lifelong learning. At UOP, we are committed to opening up quality education to students from a diverse range of backgrounds and experiences.

The challenges we face in this century are enormous. We live in a global village and are immediately affected by the surroundings in all lifestyles. The overlap of common interests among countries dictates a fresh intellectual approach in dealing with each other. Some of these approaches are dialogue and respect of differences with others, enhancement of intellectual pluralism and maximizing common interests and respect for the ethnic and religious differences with others. We live in a mosaic cultural heritage, which we should understand, respect and live with.

UOP has developed an excellent national and international reputation. Since 2006 we have been considering what the University should be like in the future to strengthen and foster this reputation. As a result, many exciting changes are now in progress. In particular, we are building on our strengths, developing new professionally relevant areas, investing in staff and facilities and reorganizing ourselves to ensure that we maintain our traditional focus on academic excellence. We have recently achieved a new milestone in obtaining the Quality Assurance Certificate from the HEAC. This certificate has been awarded for the first time and UOP is the first academic institution in Jordan to receive this certificate.

Over recent years, the University's research programs have flourished across a range of areas, backed up by alliances with other major research institutions. The University's international involvement covers an extensive range of exchange programs and international agreements.

2. Mobility & Exchange Programs

UOP has a number of agreements with regional and international higher education institutions. One of the main goals of these agreements is to establish, develop and maintain international relations in the area of exchanging students and staff. Phoenix EU Funded Erasmus Project is an example of these successful international agreements.
