

them is expected to be protonated at physiological pH. Thus, two forms of compound 5 were built with one of the tertiary amine groups is protonated and every one was then docked separately in the COX active site.