The Salone Internazionale del Mobile comes once a year, but boy do we revel in it! The world's most prestigious annual design exhibition, it's jam-packed with everything we love about the industry and so much more. Spanning furniture, products, technology, innovations and trends, our trip there this year was like being called back to the mother ship, a kind of 'MD phone home' moment. Naturally, we were first in line to check it all out, notebook in one hand, quivering pen in the other.
