

July 14

Only Our servants who were truly God-fearing will inherit Paradise.

And we who are angels do not descend to earth except at the command of your Lord.
To God belongs all that is before us, behind us, and in between,
for your Lord is never forgetful.

He is Lord of heavens and earth and all things in-between.
So worship only Him and continue to worship;
for do you know of any other being that even comes close to Him?
