

and saved him from the evil town whose bad people did unclean acts as they transgressed the Law.
And We accepted Lot within our Mercy,
for he was among the righteous ones.

21:48,51,72-75

July 30

[On Judgment Day,]
those who were blessed by Our goodness before their deaths
will be so far removed [from Hellfire]
they will not even hear its slightest sound.

And they will live forever,
granted whatever they wish.
They will not be grieved or concerned
by the most fearful events, but will be welcomed by angels who say,
'This is the Day which you have been promised.'

On [Judgment] Day,
We will roll up Heaven
as a scroll is rolled up into a book.
Just as creation was made in the first place,
We will re-make it;
this is a promise and We shall do it.