

If you ask the doubters,
'Do you really know
Who owns the earth and everything on it?'
They will say that it belongs to God.
Then say to them,
'why would you not remember
[and reflect on the resurrection]?'

23:78-85

August 14

God never conceived a son,
nor is there any god in company with Him.
If that were so,
then each god would have taken to himself
what he had created,
and some gods would try to overcome the others.

Glory be to the One God,
who alone knows what is seen and unseen,
and is exalted above all who are attributed to Him as partners.
