

But it will be too late, for they were given a chance to heed the clear warning spoken by God's messenger, yet they turned away,
accusing him of being a mad teacher.

44:7-14

The revelation of the Book [the Qur'an] is from God, the All-Mighty, the All-Wise.

Surely there are signs in the heavens and on earth for those who would believe.

In your own being and in that of every other living creature are God's further signs for people of strong faith.

Similarly, in the alternation of night and day, in the rain that falls from the sky to revive the dormant earth, and in the path of the winds, there are signs for people to understand.

In this Qur'an is God's revelation, recited to you in Truth.

How then can people worship any beings
other than God,
or believe any teachings apart from God's own revelation?
