

February 23

God does not delight in hearing negative speech, except by one who has been wronged to inform others, for God is the All-Hearing and the All-Knowing.

Whether you do good deeds in public, or in secret, or you pardon someone for doing a bad deed, remember that God the All-Powerful is All-Pardoning.

4:148-149

February 24

We have revealed to you, [O Muhammad] as We revealed to Noah and the Prophets who came after him.

We revealed also to Ibrahim [Abraham], Ismael [Ishmael], Ishaq [Isaac], Ya'qob [Jacob], and the Tribes;

to Isa [Jesus], Ayob [Job], Younes [Jonah], Haroon [Aaron] and Solyman [Solomon];

and We gave to Dawoud [David] the Zaboor [Psalms].

We also revealed to other Messengers before you; some We told you about, while some We did not, and Musa [Moses] spoke to God directly.

All were sent as God's Messengers, as bearers of good news as well as warners, so that people would not have a complaint against God after those Messengers were sent.

God is ever the All-Mighty and the All-Wise.
