Announcing a New Academic Partnership with Cal Poly Pomona

Master of Interior Architecture Degree

The new UCLA Extension/Cal Poly Pomona Extended University Joint Study Program in Interior Architecture offers a program leading to a Master of Interior Architecture (MIA) degree from Cal Poly Pomona that is fully accredited by the Council for Interior Design Accreditation (CIDA). Degrees are expected to be granted starting Fall 2010, pending approval by CSU Board of Trustees and WASC.

The program is divided into two levels:

PREREQUISITE FOUNDATION LEVEL

The first level consists of 18 courses that provide fundamental knowledge and skills in the field of interior design. Students who successfully complete this level earn a Certificate in Interior Design: Foundation Level.

REQUIRED ADVANCED LEVEL

The second level consists of 12 courses that address a range of advanced topics in interior architecture. Students who successfully complete this level earn a Master of Interior Architecture degree conferred by Cal Poly Pomona.

To apply for the Required Advanced Level, students must show evidence of a bachelor's degree in any field, have successfully completed all Prerequisite Foundation Level courses with a grade of "B" or better, and be evaluated for advanced standing by the program advisor; for an appointment call (310) 794-3747.

Key Program Facts

- All courses will continue to be offered through UCLA Extension at our Westwood facilities
- Extension staff oversees the day-to-day operations of the new MIA program
- Current students who complete the Prerequisite Foundation Level Courses with a grade of "B" or better and show evidence of a bachelor's degree are eligible to apply for the MIA program.
- Current students without a bachelor's degree or who elect not to pursue the MIA, have the option of completing Prerequisite Foundation Level courses to earn a Certificate in Interior Design: Foundation Level and may take the NCIDQ exam after a higher amount of required work experience.
- Fee increases for the Required Advanced Level courses begin Fall Quarter 2010
